AZ CORP COMMISSION
DOCKET CONTROL

2009 MAR - 5 A 10: 13

RECEIVED

The Securities Division recommends that the Commission enter the attached Order to Cease and Desist, Order for Administrative Penalties, and Consent to Same by Respondents Wachovia Securities, LLC, and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC. ("Consent Order"). The Consent Order relates to activities of Wachovia Securities, LLC, and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC. ("Wachovia") regarding the offer and sale of auction rate securities. The proposed Consent Order imposes administrative penalties in the amount of $642,280.13.

As you are aware, as a result of the February 2008 wide spread auction failures in the auction rate securities market, in March 2008 the North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA) formed a multistate task force, with which the Securities Division participated, to investigate the auction rate securities market. The investigations focused on the sales practices of securities salesmen and the supervision of those salesmen by their broker-dealers. In August 2008, Wachovia agreed in principle to a national settlement. In order to provide for uniformity among the states, the NASAA task force created a model consent order. The findings of fact and conclusions of law contained in the attached proposed Consent Order were negotiated between Wachovia and the lead task force state.

The principal components of the settlement are:

- Wachovia's payment of administrative penalties in the amount of $50 million dollars, apportioned among the states.
- Wachovia's offer to purchase at par value auction rate securities that are subject to unsuccessful auctions and that are not subject to calls or redemptions, from investors who purchased from either Wachovia Securities or Wachovia Capital Markets on or before February 13, 2008.

- The first buyback commenced November 10, 2008, and concluded November 28, 2008. The second buyback commences no later than June 10, 2009, and concludes no later than June 30, 2009.
- To each investor who sold auction rate securities below par between February 13, 2008, and August 15, 2008, Wachovia's payment of the difference between par and the price at which the investor sold the securities.
- Wachovia's establishment and maintenance of a dedicated telephone assistance line.
- Wachovia's arbitration of any claim for consequential damages.
- Wachovia's refund of refinancing fees received by Wachovia from specified municipal auction rate issuers that refinanced auction rate securities through Wachovia after February 13, 2008.

In light of the significant effort undertaken by the NASAA task force members in investigating Wachovia and the relief Wachovia has provided to investors in auction rate securities, the Securities Division believes that entry of the proposed Consent Order is in the public interest.

DECISION NO. _____

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST, ORDER FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES, AND CONSENT TO SAME
BY: RESPONDENTS WACHOVIA
SECURITIES, LLC, AND WACHOVIA
CAPITAL MARKETS, LLC

17                                   WHEREAS, Wachovia Securities, LLC<sup>1</sup> ("Wachovia Securities"), is a dealer registered in 18                                   the state of Arizona with its home office at One North Jefferson Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, and 19                                   Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC ("Wachovia Capital Markets", collectively with Wachovia
20                                   Securities, "Wachovia"<sup>2</sup> ), is a dealer with its home office at 301 South College Street, Charlotte,
21                                   North Carolina; and

22                                   WHEREAS, a multistate task force conducted and coordinated investigations into
23                                   Wachovia's marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors during the period of January
24                                   1, 2006, through February 14, 2008; and

25                                   WHEREAS, after a books and records inspection by a multistate task force on July 17,

26                                   <sup>1</sup> In October 2007, Wachovia Corporation acquired the Missouri-based broker dealer A. G. Edwards & Sons, Inc. ("AG Edwards") which was subsequently combined with Wachovia Securities, LLC.

<sup>2</sup> Factual allegations in this Order may apply to Wachovia Securities and/or Wachovia Capital Markets, but do not necessarily refer to both entities.

1 2008, Wachovia Securities has cooperated fully with regulators conducting the investigations by 2 responding to inquiries, providing documentary evidence and other materials, and providing 3 regulators with access to information relating to the investigations; and

4 WHEREAS, Wachovia has advised regulators of its agreement to resolve the investigations
5 relating to its marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors; and

6 WHEREAS, Wachovia agrees to, among other things, reimburse certain purchasers of 7 auction rate securities, and to make certain payments at the direction of the Arizona Corporation
8 Commission ("Commission"); and

9 WHEREAS, Wachovia elects to permanently waive any right to a hearing and appeal under 10 Articles 11 and 12 of the Securities Act of Arizona, A.R.S. § 44-1801 et seq. ("Securities Act")
11 with respect to this Consent Order (the "Order");
12

13 NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission, as administrator of the Securities Act, hereby 14 enters this Order.

15 I.

16 FINDINGS OF FACT

17 1. Wachovia Securities admits the jurisdiction of the Commission and Wachovia
18 Capital Markets consents to the jurisdiction of the Commission for purposes of this Order. Neither
19 admits nor denies the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained in this Order, and each
20 consents to the entry of this Order by the Commission.
21

22 2. Auction rate securities are long-term debt or equity instruments that include auction
23 preferred shares of closed-end funds, municipal auction rate bonds, and various asset-backed
24 auction rate bonds (collectively referred to herein as "ARS"). While ARS are all long-term
25 instruments, one significant feature of ARS (which historically provided the potential for short-26 term liquidity) is the interest/dividend reset through auctions that occur in varying increments of

1 between 7 and 42 days. If an auction is successful, investors are able to exit the ARS market on a
2 short-term basis. If, however, an auction "fails," investors are required to hold all or some of their
3 ARS until the next successful auction in order to liquidate their funds. Beginning in February
4 2008, the ARS market experienced widespread failed auctions.

5 Marketing and Sales of ARS to Investors

6 3. In connection with the sale of ARS, some Arizona investors state variously that they
7 were told by Wachovia Securities and its registered agents that ARS were:

- 8 a. just like cash;
- 9 b. same as cash;
- 10 c. safe as cash;
- 11 d. same as money markets;
- 12 e. safe as money markets;
- 13 f. cash equivalents;
- 14 g. short-term adjustable rate securities;
- 15 h. cash alternatives;
- 16 i. completely safe;
- 17 j. liquid at any time; and/or
- 18 k. always liquid at an auction.

20 Although marketed and sold to investors as safe, liquid, cash-like investments, and although the 21 ARS market had, in fact, functioned for more than twenty years with virtually no auction failures,
22 ARS are actually long-term instruments subject to a complex auction process that, upon failure, can 23 lead to illiquidity and lower interest rates.

24
25 4. Wachovia Securities further fostered the misconception that ARS were cash-like 26 instruments by providing account portfolio summaries to certain of its customers that listed ARS as

1 “cash equivalents.” In fact, ARS were not “cash equivalents” and full liquidity was only available
2 at an auction if the auction was successful.

3 5. Although Wachovia Securities sold ARS as conservative, safe, and liquid
4 investments to its investors until February 2008, Wachovia had information that several auctions
5 had failed in August 2007 and early 2008, before the mass failures in February 2008. During this
6 same period of time, Wachovia failed to inform its customers purchasing ARS after such auctions
7 began to fail that certain auctions would have failed had Wachovia or another broker-dealer not
8 entered support bids in those auctions.

9 6. Although Wachovia knew, or should have known, of the inherent risks and the 10 recent volatility of the ARS market, only minimal information regarding the ARS market was 11 provided to Wachovia Securities’ retail ARS customers.

13 7. Wachovia and its registered securities agents were, or should have been, aware that 14 the ARS market was suffering from increasing failures and liquidity issues, and they should have 15 disclosed those facts to investors who were purchasing auction rates after such issues arose. Based 16 on these facts, Wachovia engaged in dishonest and unethical practices in the marketing and sale of 17 ARS. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1961(A)(13), these practices constitute grounds to revoke
18 Wachovia’s registration. These practices included, among other things, the following:

19 a. Wachovia told some ARS investors purchasing ARS after the market 20 disruptions began to occur that:

- 21 i. ARS were cash equivalents;
22 ii. ARS were completely safe; and/or 23 iii. ARS were liquid at any time.
24

25 b. Wachovia was or should have been aware that the market for ARS was 26 becoming illiquid, yet Wachovia Securities continued to market and sell ARS to investors.

Temporary Maximum Rate Waiver on Certain ARS

8. The interest rates on ARS are reset periodically through the auction process. In the event that there is insufficient demand for a particular issue and an auction fails, the interest rate resets to a "maximum rate" or "failure rate" as defined in the offering documents for that particular issue. Typically, this maximum rate would be higher than prevailing market rates in order to compensate ARS holders who are unable to sell their positions and offer an "incentive" to induce buyers to return to the market although in some cases, particularly for student loan auction rates, the maximum rate might be lower than the prevailing rate.

9. In December 2007, with the encouragement of its underwriters, the Missouri Higher Education Loan Authority ("MOHELA") sought and secured approval to waive its maximum rate for certain issues of ARS. Absent such waivers, the ARS issued by MOHELA would not have been allowed to reset at interest rates high enough to clear auctions.

10. As a result of the maximum rate waivers, certain MOHELA ARS issues reset to a higher rate for a brief period after the waiver was implemented. However, due to a feature of those issues that caps the average interest rate over any given one-year period, the interest rates reset to 0% after the expiration of the waiver period. The ramifications of this maximum rate waiver were not explained to Wachovia Securities' customers who subsequently purchased MOHELA ARS.

11. Wachovia Securities engaged in dishonest and unethical practices by not adequately explaining to individual investors who purchased ARS with maximum rate waivers, among other things, the following:

a. that the ARS interest rates could not be reset at a level that would prevent a failed auction absent the maximum rate waiver; and

b. that the high interest rate allowed by the waiver would expire at the end of the waiver period unless extended by the issuer.

1 Pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1961(A)(13), these practices constitute grounds to revoke Wachovia
2 Securities' registration.

3 Failure To Supervise Agents Who Sold ARS

4 12. Although ARS are complicated and complex products, Wachovia Securities did not
5 provide its sales or marketing staff with the training and information necessary to adequately
6 explain these products or the mechanics of the auction process to their customers. During the 7 course of investigations, on-the-record statements taken from Wachovia Securities' registered
8 agents demonstrated that these agents lacked a basic understanding of the functionality of the ARS
9 products and the auction rate market.

10 13. Many of Wachovia Securities' registered agents were not adequately educated in the 11 ARS products they were selling and did not know where to look for information to bolster that 12 knowledge. Wachovia Securities failed to provide timely and comprehensive sales and marketing
13 literature regarding ARS and the mechanics of the auction process. In addition, Wachovia
14 Securities failed to review account portfolio statements sent to its customers to ensure that they 15 reflected accurate information regarding ARS.

16 14. Wachovia Securities' failure to provide sufficient training and information
17 concerning ARS and the market environment in which they were sold was not limited to one or 18 two agents, and is therefore indicative of Wachovia Securities' failure to ensure that its registered
19 personnel provided adequate information regarding ARS to its customers.

20 15. Wachovia Securities failed to reasonably supervise its employees, which is grounds
21 for revocation of its registration under A.R.S. § 44-1961(A)(12):

22 a. failing to provide adequate training to its registered agents regarding ARS

23 by, among other things:

24 i. failing to provide timely and comprehensive sales and marketing
25
26

1 literature regarding ARS and the mechanics of the auction process;

2 ii. failing to provide pertinent information concerning the complexity of 3 the ARS product; and

4 iii. failing to ensure that its agents were selling ARS to individual 5 investors for whom they were suitable; and

6 b. failing to review account portfolio statements sent to its customers to ensure
7 that they reflected accurate information regarding ARS;

8 c. failing to review ARS transactions in accounts of customers who needed
9 liquidity; and

10 d. failing to ensure that its registered personnel were providing adequate
11 information regarding ARS to its customers.

13 II.

14 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

15 16. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the 16 Arizona Constitution and the Securities Act

17 17. The Commission finds Wachovia Securities failed to supervise its employees and 18 engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business, and that this conduct
19 constitutes grounds to revoke Wachovia Securities' registration under A.R.S. § 44-1961(A)(12)
20 and § 44-1961(A)(13).
21

22 18. The Commission finds this order and the following relief appropriate, in the public
23 interest, and consistent with the purposes intended by the Securities Act.

III.

ORDER

On the basis of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Wachovia's consent to the entry of this Order,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. This Order concludes the investigation by the Commission and any other action that the Commission could commence under applicable Arizona law on behalf of Arizona as it relates to Wachovia, and its marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors.

7. No later than November 28, 2008, Wachovia shall pay any investor in the Relevant Class who sold ARS below par between February 13, 2008 and August 15, 2008 and whom Wachovia can reasonably identify, the difference between par and the price at which the investor sold the ARS.

4 specified in the Order, is being made pursuant to a settlement with state securities regulators.

5 10. By November 10, 2008, Wachovia shall mail the Required Notification to all
6 investors in the Relevant Class that transferred ARS positions to a firm other than Wachovia, prior

9 11. Wachovia shall demonstrate that all investors in the Relevant Class received the 10 Required Notification if Wachovia demonstrates that: 1) Wachovia mailed the Required
11 Notification via First Class mail at the customer's last known address and did not receive a return
12 notice, or 2) Wachovia repurchased ARS from the investor.

13 12. Wachovia Securities shall establish and maintain a dedicated telephone assistance

18 not resolved informally by Wachovia, Wachovia shall arbitrate the claim of any Relevant Class
19 member who elects to arbitrate, pursuant to the following provisions:

21 a. the arbitrations will be conducted by a public arbitrator (as defined by 22 section 12100(u) of the NASD Code of Arbitration Procedures for Customer Disputes, eff.

24 b. the above-referenced public arbitrator will be available for the exclusive
25 purpose of arbitrating any Relevant Class member's consequential damages claim;
26

1 c. Wachovia shall pay all applicable forum and filing fees;

2 d. any Relevant Class member who chooses to pursue such a claim shall bear
3 the burden of proving that they suffered consequential damages and that such damages
4 were caused by investors' inability to access funds consisting of investors' ARS purchases
5 through Wachovia; and

6 e. Wachovia shall be able to defend itself against such claims; provided,
7 however, that Wachovia shall not contest liability related to the sale of ARS; and provided
8 further that Wachovia shall not be able to use as part of its defense an investor's decision
9 not to borrow money from Wachovia.

10 14. By November 28, 2008, Wachovia Securities and Wachovia Capital Markets,
11 respectively and separately, shall refund refinancing fees received by it to municipal auction rate
12 issuers that issued such securities in the initial primary market between August 1, 2007 and 13 February 13, 2008, and refinanced those securities through Wachovia after February 13, 2008.

14 15. If Wachovia defaults in any of its obligations set forth in this Order, the 15 Commission may vacate this Order, at its sole discretion, upon 10 days notice to Wachovia and 16 without opportunity for administrative hearing or may refer this matter for enforcement as provided
17 in the Securities Act.

18 16. This Order is not intended to indicate that Wachovia or any of its affiliates or 19 current or former employees shall be subject to any disqualifications contained in the federal 20 securities law, the rules and regulations thereunder, the rules and regulations of self regulatory 21 organizations or various states' securities laws including any disqualifications from relying upon 22 the registration exemptions or safe harbor provisions. In addition, this Order is not intended to 23 form the basis for any such disqualifications.

24 17. This Order may not be read to indicate that Wachovia or any of its affiliates or 25

1 current or former employees engaged in fraud or violated any federal or state laws, the rules and
2 regulations thereunder, or the rules and regulations of self regulatory organizations.

3 18. For any person or entity not a party to this Order, this Order does not limit or create
4 any private rights or remedies against Wachovia including, without limitation, the use of any e-mails
5 or other documents of Wachovia or of others for the marketing and sale of auction rate securities to 6 investors, limit or create liability of Wachovia, or limit or create defenses of Wachovia to any claims.

7 19. This Order shall not disqualify Wachovia or any of its affiliates or current or former 8 employees from any business that they otherwise are qualified or licensed to perform under 9 applicable state law and this Order is not intended to form the basis for any disqualification.

10 20. Nothing herein shall preclude the state of Arizona, its departments, agencies, boards,
11 commissions, authorities, political subdivisions and corporations, other than the Commission and only
12 to the extent set forth in paragraph 1 above, (collectively, "State Entities") and the officers, agents or 13 employees of State Entities from asserting any claims, causes of action, or applications for 14 compensatory, nominal and/or punitive damages, administrative, civil, criminal, or injunctive relief
15 against Wachovia in connection with the marketing and sale of auction rate securities at Wachovia.
